

This week's updates from WCVA

11 NOVEMBER 2019

Hi, and welcome to this week's newsletter.

We're counting down to the Welsh Charity Awards this Friday...we've been hard at work making sure the ceremony is one to remember and we're buzzing for the big day! Check out the shortlist and join in with the fun on #WelshCharityAwards.

Last week was Trustees Week, and as well as hosting a brilliant event and a webinar we published two great pieces from young trustees detailing their experiences. Read them on the WCVA blog.

Thanks for reading, we'll catch you again next week.

Countdown to the Welsh Charity Awards

With just four days to go until the Welsh Charity Awards find out who's in the running for an award!

Read more

Funding latest

Localgiving Magic Little Grants

Grants of up to £500 are available for groups with an income of less than £250,000.

Read more

Field Studies Council Kids Fund

Funding is available for groups to pay for fees for groups of disadvantaged children to attend courses at FSC learning locations.

Read more

Volunteering news

Get ready for #iwillWeek 2019

Are you ready to say #iwill to showcasing and supporting young people to transform their schools, communities and environments?

Read more

Can volunteering help to achieve better health and care?

Fiona Liddell reflects on a recent event organised by Helpforce and Wales School of Social Care Research.

Read More

Regional impact events – Book your free place!

The next round of our Engagement Events will help you to identify, plan and communicate the positive difference your organisation makes to society.

Read more

Voluntary sector news

Prosiect Sylfaen Project

Could your organisation benefit from FREE bespoke support to become more effective and sustainable?

Read more

Trustees Week 2019: The volunteer to trustee journey

Swansea Mind Trustee, Lauren Burns, blogs about her journey from volunteering to trusteeship and what she's learned from the experience.

Read more

Trustees Week 2019 - a young trustee's perspective

As part of Trustees Week 2019, aspiring young trustee Kyle Evans blogs about his interest in becoming a trustee.

Read more

Catalyst Cymru: Resilient Heritage is now open to applications

WCVA is inviting heritage organisations in Wales to apply for dedicated development support.

Read more

Training and Events

Webinar: Investing in Volunteers

Get an introduction to Investing in Volunteers Award.

26 November 2019, 14:00 - 15:00

Read more

Working in partnership for better outcomes

Share the load by developing and improving new or existing partnerships to make your work go further.

3 December 2019, Cardiff

Read more

Bilingualism at work