

This week's updates from WCVA

16 July 2018

Hello, and welcome to this week's newsletter.

recruit3 is the online jobs hub for the third sector, finding talented and ambitious people to work in the third sector in Wales, and helping people to find jobs that make a real difference to people's lives. Last year recruit3 launched its brand-new website and with it the opportunity to sign up for job alerts that are tailor made for you. Registering for job alerts is a proactive way of finding out when recruit3 has the perfect match for you.

Visit the website for more.

The next Brexit Civil Society Forum meeting is taking place on the 24 July in Cardiff. The purpose of the Forum is to get a clear steer from members on their key areas of Brexit interest, what their main concerns are and what they want to influence. This will help guide the direction of the project and its activities. The Forum is open to all third sector organisations - please let us know if you would like to attend.

Thanks for reading, we'll see you again next week.

Volunteering

New platform to help organisations recruit and manage volunteers

Bringing volunteers and volunteering involving organisations together through a new, straightforward platform

WCVA general

Never miss your perfect job

Last year recruit3 launched its brand new website and with it the opportunity to sign up for job alerts that are tailor made for you.

Funding

Grants for Projects Tackling Health Issues Amongst Vulnerable People

Third round of grants from Austin and Hope Pilkington Trust

Scottish Power Foundation 2019 Grants Programme

The Scottish Power Foundation is now accepting applications from Registered Charities and not-for-profit organisations and expects to fund around 20 projects over the next year.

Transformation & Growth Fund open for applications

The Community Foundation in Wales has opened the 'Transformation & Growth Fund' to help voluntary and community organisations serving those at risk of homelessness.

Trustees and governance

Public Trust – Latest Charity Commission Research

The Charity Commission has published the latest in a series of authoritative, independent studies examining the factors that the public associate with a trustworthy charity.

Calling all Community Interest Companies \(CICs\)

Would you like to help shape the development of a new service to allow CICs to file their annual report and accounts online?

Policy and politics

The riveting and the mundane: stories shaping lives across Wales

The Measuring The Mountain project records people's experiences of health and social care in Wales.

Setting our interim emissions reduction targets and first two carbon budgets

Written Statement - Lesley Griffiths AM, Cabinet Secretary Energy, Planning and Rural Affairs

Survey looking into adult social services

The Auditor General is looking for third sector input into its study into local authorities and social services for adults.

This week's consultations

Your chance to influence the draft Budget.

Wales Civil Society Forum on Brexit