

An Overview in Numbers

- 150 local residents are expected
- 20 volunteers are expected
- Volunteers will give over 5,000 hours to help run the cafe
- Hafod Ceiri received £98,795 of grant money in order to open a new cafe in Llithfaen

Stakeholder Engagement

Volunteers

- 2 focus groups held with volunteers
- 8 responses to the questionnaire

Residents

- 2 focus groups with the residents
- 2 one to one conversations
- 20 responses to the questionnaire

Volunteers

- 100% of volunteers anticipate that their feeling of belonging to a community will increase
- 63% of volunteers anticipate that their sense of purpose will increase
- 100% of volunteers anticipate that they will feel less lonely

Residents

- 70% of residents anticipate they will feel less lonely
- 100% of residents anticipate that their feeling of belonging to a community will increase
- 40% of residents anticipate that their physical health will improve
- 100% of residents anticipate that their mental health will improve

The Well-being of Future Generations Goals (Wales)

A Wales of Cohesive Communities

The results identified for the volunteers all relate to improvement in the local community

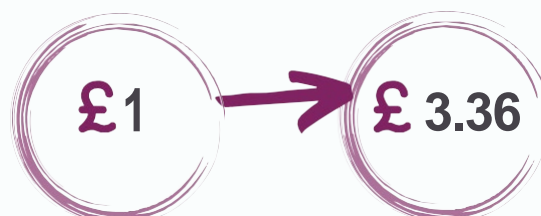

A Healthier Wales

The outcomes identified for the residents all relate to an improvement in their mental and physical well-being

Forecasted Social
Return on Investment (SROI)

*Please see the full report for further information