SOCIAL VALUE CYMRU

THE SOCIAL IMPACT OF THE NORTHEAST WALES MULTICULTURAL HUB

OVERVIEW

- 23 community groups are actively involved in the HUB and attend network meetings, training, and manages small pots of funding.
- 96 practitioners supported through the activities of the Multicultural HUB.
- 9,000 people supported through various community events and through the groups
- 24 monthly network meetings held to support groups and practitioners
- £95,000 worth of grants made available to community groups since 2022 to promote diverse cultures and promote the anti-racism agenda

COMMUNITY GROUPS

- 100% of groups have experienced improved capacity as groups have improved resources (financial and other) and skills to lead their groups and community
- 100% of groups feel an improved sense of belonging locally because they can showcase and celebrate their culture and improve diversity
- 100% of groups feel they have a strong support network locally to support community groups

PRACTITIONERS

- 100% of practitioners feel there is a strong support network locally for artists/practitioners from diverse backgrounds
- 86% of practitioners feel an improved sense of belonging locally as they showcase and celebrate their culture and improve diversity
- 100% of practitioners experience improved opportunities to develop themselves as an artist/practitioner
- 100% of practitioners experience increased opportunities to promote cultural awareness through the delivery of Heritage, Culture and Sports projects to wider communities

COMMUNITY MEMBERS

- 85% of community members feel an Improvement in their mental well-being
- 93% of community members feel more connected to the local community
- 81% of community members feel their physical well-being has improved
- 86% of community members now feel they are able to live more independently

SOCIAL RETURN ON INVESTMENT

These are based on the survey results from a representative sample of participants. For full results please see the full evaluation report.